“ I remember when I was about four years old,I had been playing outside my Dads restaurant where Aunt Leona (and Aunt Bernice) worked at the time.I was pretty dirty from having to much fun,anyways she promptly marched me into the washroom and proceeded to scrub half my skin off .That would have been around 1950 or 51.Also around the same time in the restaurant on West Main St. in Lancaster she caught me trying to take a puff off my Moms cigarette after which they decided to cure me of that by sitting me down with a fully lit cigar and after ten puffs I was cured.Dad (Henry Wargula) had a couple other restaurants,the Star on Delaware Ave.in Buffalo and the Liberty Diner in Depew where Aunt Leona also helped out.More than a few times back in those early days we would visit Gramps and Gramma Wargula on Sunday afternoons,Aunt Leona and Uncle John lived in the other half of the duplex on Tিরeronda st. In Cheektowaga.Once while I was there she was making flowers out of clay,painting them and baking them in the oven.I really miss my grand parents and felt very said when Uncle John died.The last time I remember seeing Aunt Leona was sometime in the early seventies,my wife Linda and I bumped into her in a store (Two Guys),she couldn^t help telling me how proud she was of Phil who was in civil service or civil engineering From time to time I think about my long lost relatives back in Buffalo but it^s doubtful that I^ll be back there ever again at this point as we love it here in British Columbia.I believe my Aunt Leona was a very good Christian woman. May peace be with her and God bless....Sincerely,...Paul G Wargula.
